THE JOURNALISM DEPARTMENT
West Charlotte Senior High School
Charlotte, North Carolina

Foreword

In order to leave the footprints of the students who traveled this long and interesting journey and to add another year of work and play to the many journeys that have been completed here at West Charlotte, we have earnestly endeavored to present a pictorial annual which would represent our school as you would like to remember it.

We hope that in years to come this annual will bring back memories to the travelers of the long and interesting journey at West Charlotte.

Memories fade... We here present THE LION and hope that through this book you can relive your life at West Charlotte.

THE STAFF

Dedication

For more years than we care to remember, the same cheerful assuring face has filled a niche in the hearts of the West Charlotte family. Regardless of what the occasion demanded, whether it was a kind word, a bit of advice, or an expression of gaiety, this friendly personality was there to provide it. She is so much a part of our school that to remove her would be to erase one of the brightest lights found along our journey.

It is with matchless joy, with sincere gratitude, and with profound pride that we dedicate the 1957 LION to MRS. ELIZABETH S. RANDOLPH.

To the Faculty

We searched and searched to find a word
That had not been spoken, written or heard,
And yet complete in meaning,
Rich enough to express our feeling
In an original way
But we could not.

We tried to catch the flowers' whispers
And put the message into words,
That would not do.

So after thinking day into day
We'll say in the same old simple way,
"We Thank You."

It Was a Long Journey,

But Worthwhile . . .
